Arrival Before the Capitol.—We heard that Gen. Sooyendam, deputized from the 3rd armies, recently visited the house of Mr. James G. Johnson, near Edenton, who has been for months confined to his bed, and robbed him of a large sum of money, some liquors, and probably other articles. Some of the citizens of Edenton treated themselves and sent in parcels of the leftovers, and it is said, enjoyed that of the whole party. About that time a squad of Federals paid Edenton a visit, and on learning of the affair told the citizens that had they not been there, they (the Federals) would have and they offered to furnish the people arms to defend themselves against such bands, if they desired them.

The Latest Patent.—The Lord, to whom was referred (by himself) the case of the Associated Press despatches, has been sitting in judgment on the same, and has come to the conclusion that it is the latest patented Thrashing Machine. It winnows the chaff from publishers beautifully, and blows the dust into the eyes of the people to perfection with the wings of that big Bag, surnamed Rhea. Great is that Bag attached to the Thrashing Machine, and publishers are its prey.

Exception.—We saw a sorry load of sorry post-oak wood yesterday, drawn by two sorry mules, for which only $60 was asked by the negro accompanying it. The team, we learn, belonged to Mr. Allen Rogers. The last we saw of it, it was seeking a purchaser and finding indignation from some and ridicule from others.

We regret to learn, says the Fayetteville Telegraph, that Mr. John McMillan, son of Colonel Alex. McMillan, of Robeson county, was killed by deserters near Antioch Church, in that county, on the night of the 12th instant. Mr. McMillan is said to have been an estimable gentleman, and his untimely death is universally lamented by those who knew him.

The Post Office at China Grove, Cabarrus county, has been re-established, Mr. Jo A. Hoss Postmaster.

Fire in Fayetteville.—The Fayetteville Telegraph of the 14th says:

The stirring peals of the fire-bell startled our citizens from their usual quiet on yesterday about 10 o'clock a. m., and in a short time it seemed that everybody was hurrying in the direction of a dense smoke that rose near the grave yard.—We repaired to the spot and found that the burning building was one owned by the Fayetteville Manufacturing Company and occupied by Mr. Jas. P. Reynolds, one of its employees. The house was totally destroyed, but most of its contents were saved. The Arsenal engine, under Capt. C. R. Banks, was there, and although arriving too late to give any assistance in saving the house in which the fire originated, rendered efficient service in preserving some of the adjacent buildings. This company is of inestimable value to our city, and we trust its present efficiency may long continue.

The Commissioners respectfully suggest that if it be found practical, the producer should be allowed to retain a fourth part of their surplus, to be sold at market rates to pay for their necessary plantation supplies, which they have to purchase at high market prices. They earnestly call upon the farmers to bring forward their corn and provisions necessary to the support of the army in their immediate front, and which alone will prevent the loss to the enemy, of all their crops, stock, negroes, &c., &c. The commissioners would also, recommend that the impressment should be universal and uniform, living out anyone desiring their people from the operation.

For the information of all persons concerned, we publish the following instructions, with the hope that they will be strictly obeyed.

"No officer, or agent, shall impress the necessary supplies and cheap power may have for the consumption of himself, his family, employees, slaves, or to carry on his ordinary [illegible] manufacturing or agricultural employments."

The next meeting of the Board will be held in the Senate Chamber, in the City of Raleigh, on Monday, the 3d day of April next, unless sooner changed. Impressing agents must furnish good and satisfactory reasons for disapprovals on appeals, or the award of local appraisers will be approved. All communications should be addressed to the Secretary of the Board, Raleigh, N. C.

Headquarters Reserve, North Carolina,
Adjutant General's Office,
Raleigh, February 13th, 1865.
General Order, No. 5.

THE ENROLLING OFFICERS IN THE STATE OF North Carolina will make diligent enquiry in their respective counties for the arms, &c., called for in Gen. Lee's appeal of January 25, 1865.

They are required to receive all arms brought forward under the appeal, and restoring them to Capt. A. W. Lawrence, an Ordnance officer Reserve, N. C.

By command of Lt. Gen'l Holmes
JOHN W. HINSDALE,
Asst. Adj. General.

Headq'rs Army of Northern Virginia,
January 25, 1865.

If there are such as additional force of cavalry, there is need of carbines, revolvers, pistols, saddles, and other accoutrements of mounted men. Arms and equipments of the kind desired are believed to be held by citizens in sufficient numbers to supply our wants. Many keep them as trophies, and some with the expectation of using them in their own defence. But it should be remembered that arms are now required for use, and that they cannot be made so effectual for the defence of the country in any way, as in the hands of organized troops. They are needed to enable our cavalry to cope with the well armed and equiped cavalry of the enemy, not only in the general service, but in resisting these predatory expeditions which have inflicted so much loss upon the people of the interior.

To the patriotic I need make no other appeal than the wants of the service; but I beg to remind those who are reluctant to part with the arms and equipments in their possession, that by keeping them they diminish the ability of the army to defend their property, without themselves deriving any benefit from them. I therefore urge all persons not in the service to deliver promptly, to some of the officers designated below, such arms and equipments (especially those suitable for cavalry) as they may have, and to report to those officers the names of such persons as neglect to surrender those in their possession.

Every citizen who prevents a carbine or pistol from remaining unused, will render a service to his country. Those who think to retain arms for their defence, should remember that if the army cannot protect them, the arms will be of little use. While no valid title can be acquired to public arms and equipments except from the Government, it is reported that many persons have ignominiously purchased them from private parties. A full compensation will, therefore, be made to all who deliver such arms and equipments to any ordnance officers, officer commanding at a post, officers and agents of the Quartermaster and Commissary Departments at any station, or officers in the Enrolling service, or connected with the Nitre and Mining Bureau. All these officers are requested and those connected with this army are directed to receive and receipt for all arms and equipments, whatever their condition, and forward the same, with a duplicate receipt, to the Ordnance Department at Richmond, and report their proceedings to these headquarters. The person holding the receipt will be compensated upon presenting it to the Ordnance Bureau. While it is hoped that no one will disregard this appeal, all officers connected with this army are required, and all others are requested, to take possession of any public arms and equipments they may find in the hands of persons unwilling to surrender them to the service of the country, and to give receipts therefor. A reasonable allowance for their expenses and trouble will be made to such patriotic citizens as will collect and deliver to any of the officers above designated such arms and equipments as they may find in the hands of persons not in the service, or who will report the same to those officers. A prompt compliance with this call will greatly promote the efficiency and strength of the army, particularly of the cavalry, and render it better able to protect the homes and property of the people from outrage.

R. E. LEE,
General.

The officers receiving arms or accoutrements under this appeal are requested to state upon the face of the duplicate a copies given by them the condition of the articles, whether in good order or otherwise, and if not in good order, the per centage which should be deducted on that account.

These receipts may be presented for payment to any one of the following named officers:

Capt J M Stevens, Richmond Arsenal, Richmond
Major B Randolph Stanton, Va
Major E S Hutter, Danville, Va
Capt G S Gatty, Lynchburg, Va
Capt Chas Semple, Wytheville, Va
Capt A G Brenizer, Salisbury, N C

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

THURSDAY, FEB. 16, 1865

We publish this evening the Proclamation of Gov. Vance, issuing writs for the election of members of the General Assembly, on the first Thursday in May next. The Proclamation is worthy of the occasion, and the duty is plainly set forth. The Legislature will be composed of the best material of the country. It is their duty to assemble the Southern people in Convention, and to devise such measures as will save, if possible, the remnant of our liberties.

The Governor has also issued his Proclamation for the election of Members of Congress, and Members of the General Assembly, on the first Thursday in August next. The Legislature will be composed of the best material of the country. It is their duty to assemble the Southern people in Convention, and to devise such measures as will save, if possible, the remnant of our liberties.
